side of the Congregational church,
by S. H. Gove.

An important meeting of the Halifax Yacht Club will take place tonight. The building committee will make a report.

The drive to the Big Tree is being patronized by the "spooney" couples, judging by a sight witnessed yesterday at a secluded point on the road.

winter at the Ponce House, Ponce Park, left for his home in Pittsburg,

Those bill boards on South Ridge-more of them and they should be larger.

SHORT STORIES.

A Maine man has sent an odd Christmas present to relatives living in Kansas. This gift consisted of a box of clams packed in ice.

Town Clerk M. J. Houlihan of Newtown, Conn., has had the deed of the town given by the Indians in 1723 preserved by having it put on a silk back and inclosed in a substantial cover.

Railroad men while digging gravel in Black Butte mountain, near Lisson, Siskiyou county, Cal., came recently upon an immense buried mass of ice, believed to have been there from time immemorial.

Klondike, the fine polar bear in the Central park menagerie in New York, died recently. This is the third polar bear to die within a year, each worth about $2,000. It is not easy to get polar bears for exhibition purposes.

A postal curiosity is the fact that one of the smallest countries in the world, San Salvador, has issued the enormous number of 405 different postage stamps.
England at present issues 205 kinds at home and 5,711 in her colonies. The total of European issues is 4,089.

The Ideal Saddle Horse.

The ideal saddle horse is from fifteen to sixteen hands high, short backed and well coupled. It has thin, high withers, a long, well arched neck and a long, keen ear well set on the head.
The tail should be set high on the rump, and the rump itself should be somewhat sloping. The horse should have besides flat, sinewy bones in its legs and a medium sized foot. Country Life in America.

three months."—New York Weekly.

The Dilemma.

Mr. Rooke—I hope you didn't believe what they said about me. Miss Budd I make it a point never to believe more than half I hear. Mr. Rooke—But the trouble is you women generally believe the wrong half.

Playmates.

Mother—Tommy, I don't like to have you play with boys who are bad. Tommy—But the good boys are no good, mamma.—Chicago News.

Chronic Case.

"Has your wife complained very long?" asked the doctor.
"Ever since we were married," replied Meekly sadly.

Improving.

She—I think I've been quite economic. Her Husband—Do you? She—Certainly. I'm sure we haven't run in debt half as much as last month.—
